WOLGAST AND FREDDIE WELSH TO CLASH ON FOURTH OF JULY

(BY MONTY.)

New York, July 1.—A good deal of criticism has been aimed at Freddie Welsh, for taking on old Ad Wolgast while so many younger challengers are seeking a crack at the world's lightweight championship. The cry has gone up that the Englishman is still picking suckers, raking in easy money while afraid to risk his crown against someone with a chance to take it away from him. Perhaps this argument is out of order. Wolgast thinks it is and says he will flatten Welsh when they get in the ring at Denver on Tuesday afternoon.

The Fourth of July nearly always has offered a fine field for a good light-weight card, and this one may prove no exception to the rule. Wolgast is not such a backnumber as some people seem to think. The wonderful little man from Cadillac, Mich., has been regarded as a has-been time and again, only to come back with a sensational effort that made ring followers take off their hats to him. Maybe he will do it again this time and make July 4, 1916, as notable as other Independence Days have been in lightweight annals.

For some reason Wolgast always has been able to perform better in a day fight than under the glare of artificial lights at night. He gained the championship from Battling Nelson in a combat that lasted all afternoon—over 40 rounds—in which he beat the Dane at his own game of endurance. Against an entirely different type of fighter on the following July 4, 1911, he put up another great battle against Owen Moran, in which he gave the Englishman the first defeat he ever suffered. Wolgast was a veritable wildcat in that encounter.

Now once again Wolgast is in the ring on a Fourth of July with the world's lightweight championship at stake.

If Ad is himself, if he has gained the physical condition he says he has attained, he has more than an outside chance to knock out the champion. The bout in Denver on Tuesday will be fifteen rounds in length. It is a no-decision contest, but no decision will be needed if Ad can slip over a hay-maker. Fifteen rounds are enough for him if he is right.

Football Team of Indiana U. Will Receive Setback

Bloomington, Ind., July 1.—Prospects of the Indiana University football team next fall have been given a severe setback by the mobilization of the National Guard for service along the Mexican border.

Six men who were reasonably sure of places on the 1916 eleven are members of Company L, Indiana N. G., which was recruited at the university. All have been ordered to report at Bloomington, preparatory to joining the remainder of the state militia, which will be concentrated at Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis.

The football men called are: E. W. McCoy, C. E. Wiley, H. S. Wiley, Byron Herring, Carl Schnable and O. R. Chambers.

OAKS DEFEATED BY SEALS 2 TO 1

Skeeter Fanning Has Two Good Innings in Game With Scoring in Fourth.

San Francisco, Cal., June 30.—The Seals celebrated pennant raising this afternoon by defeating their ancient enemy, the Oaks, 2 to 1, but at that they had no mortgage on the game and right up to the end of the ninth there was the fear in the hearts of local rooters that something was going to happen.

Skeeter Fanning had two good innings, but he was in so much trouble throughout the other chapters of his day's work that it was easy enough to forget the bright spots.

All the scoring of the day came to pass in the fourth. Lane, first up, was fanned. Kenworthy was hit but was caught off first. Gardner walked and two successive hits by Barry and Elliott accounted for the run.

San Francisco came, right back at Beer. Dalton doubled to right. Bodie singled to center. Lane failed to stop the ball and Bodie landed at third with one tally in. Downs fanned but Davis missed a throw from Elliott to head off Bodie and Ping scored on the error.

SALT LAKE LOSES BOTH GAMES

Los Angeles, June 30.—Salt Lake lost both games in today's double-header, 1 to 0 and 3 to 2, and Walter Doane soaked the ball both times at the crucial moment and drove in the winning runs.

This will be good news in Portland. Blankenship, besides losing two more games, also had his hospital list increased. "Bud" Ryan was badly cut, probably by his own spikes, in the fourth inning of the second game.

"CAVE MEN" OF FIGHT RING ARE EXTINCT SAYS BOB FITZSIMMONS

New York, July 1.—Robert Fitzsimmons declares the "cave men" of the ring are extinct, and the champions of today are children compared with the old school.

"I had my first fight when I was 15 years of age," said the old gladiator. "I had three bare-knuckle fights with heavyweights when I was a kid weighing less than 115 pounds."

"That's the school I learned in. Today they get a purse that would about equal my entire ring earnings, and they have it handed to them for six or ten rounds on no-decision fighting."

"Jim Jeffries was the greatest fighter that ever lived. I say so because I fought him twice, and I trained him for that fight with Corbett. Do you know why he lost? Not age. Bah! Age counts nothing."

"Some of his smart friends thought they would tone him up and they used chloral on him, and it killed every chance he had. That's as true as I'm Bob Fitzsimmons."

"He was doped. You don't think a man like Jim would be do you? He has never said a word since, but some day you will hear the whole story. I think I know who slipped it to him."

"The best bantam and featherweight to my mind was Little Dixon. He was a fighter. He was a boxer."

of a chap. Never wasted any time peeping into the looking glass, but nevertheless he was a fair sort of a fighter at 158 pounds.

"I fought Jack Johnson. I had a broken arm at the time. I took a chance with Jeffries as a pug dog would with the butcher's terrier."

Game is Different Today.
"Here is the difference between the present day fighters and the veterans: Every time I let one go I tried for a knockout. Today they outpoint men."

"As a school they have tried, I'll say that. A knockout is a rare event today. In the old days they fought to a decision. I used to say to myself: 'Well, Bob, you just keep firing and you'll land.'"

"When is a fighter in his prime? That depends. I know of carmen at forty-five, who have been at their best, and I have seen sprinters in my time who at forty were going faster than they ever did. I was forty-five and a champion in my prime. Any man, with normal living, should live to be eighty at least."

"What checks fighters? The merry life. They jump off a wagon or come up out of a mine and earn a fortune. Then they get careless, and the first thing they know they are trying to whip the best of them all, Nature, and down they go, and they seldom get up."

IS TYRUS COBB LOSING SPEED?

Detroit Fans Question Ty Cobb's Ability This Season— Ball Player Looks Trifle Heavy.

Detroit, July 1.—Detroit fans are asking themselves whether Tyrus Cobb is slipping or whether he is simply rounding into form more slowly than usual this year. It is said to be the belief of a great many American league infielders that Cobb has slowed up at least a step going down to first base.

Some of them insist that Ty has been thrown out a number of times this year on hits that he would have beaten a step or two a few years ago. Cobb looks a trifle heavy, and possibly that may account for his seeming loss of speed.

It is also possible that T. R. C. has begun to realize that he is getting along in years, and his legs cannot stand the terrific strain forever, and that he is saving himself by not taking the chances he formerly took. Whatever the reason, it is the firm conviction of veteran American leaguers that Ty is beginning to show the ravages of time. The warm weather, however, may show the Peach to be as sweet as ever.

This contest will be the first appearance of the Brigham City squad in Ogden, since May 28. On that date, the "Peaches" were defeated by the "Mads" and since then, the latter team won another victory at Brigham City. Manager W. E. Davis is thirsting to get even and will bring his strongest players to Ogden tomorrow for that purpose. Manager Williams, however, will be ready and waiting as Pruitt has returned to his fold and the Utamades are now in fast fighting condition.

The game will begin at 3:30 o'clock and the lineup will be as follows:

Washington, June 30.—A row between Captain McBride of the Washington team and Mays, the Boston pitcher, precipitated a clash in the third inning of today's game here that threatened for a time to develop into a general fight among the players of the two clubs. The police restored order and after Agnew, a Boston catcher, had been arrested and Captain McBride and Manager Griffith of the Washingtons put off the field, the game was resumed and Boston won, 6 to 1.

The trouble started when Mays hit McBride with a pitched ball. McBride responded by throwing his bat at the pitcher, who almost immediately was surrounded by a score of Washington and Boston players. Then the police got into action, but did not reach the angry knot in the center of the diamond until Agnew had hit Griffith a blow in the face. Agnew was taken to police headquarters, where he put up $50 to guarantee his appearance tomorrow in court to answer a charge of assault.

CLEVELAND BREAKS ITS LOSING STREAK

Cleveland, O., June 30.—Cleveland broke its losing streak, defeating St. Louis, 2 to 1, today. Beebe, who, in his first American league game Monday, shut out Chicago, would have registered another shutout but for an error by Evans in the eighth. Tobin led off in the ninth with a double but failed to score. Cleveland got its run on a pass to Chapman, Speaker's triple and an infield out.

WHITE SOX ARE NOW UP IN THIRD PLACE

Chicago, June 30.—The White Sox went into third place today by virtue of another victory over Detroit, 5 to 2, while Washington was losing. Some timely hits off Dauss, his own two errors in the third inning and two passed balls by Stange in the same round were factors in the Chicago victory.
